The Programme

Are you interested in a management position in the exciting and dynamic tourism industry? Would you like to live and study abroad and have the opportunity to work in countries all over the world after you graduate? Then Tourism Management at Stenden University of Applied Sciences - Qatar is the programme for you! International Tourism has become one of the fastest growing industries worldwide in recent years. There are even greater opportunities for countries like Qatar, so the market has a need for talented and well qualified people in this industry.

International Focus

At Stenden University of Applied Sciences – Qatar (SUAS-Q), our programmes are highly international not only due to its curriculum but also by virtue of its culturally diverse student body. Drawn from all over the world, our staff have international work experiences in academia and industry.

The programme works closely with businesses in the tourism industry, as well as ministries and development agencies. This will help you to learn all about the impact of tourism on different cultures, the environment, and economic interests playing a role in this field.

Your Future Career

Tourism Management is the perfect programme for students with a talent for creativity, communication, intercultural cooperation and organising. This international course prepares students for a management, consultancy or advisory position in the tourism industry. Graduates get to work on the development of new tourism concepts and products and contribute largely to the professionalization of the field of tourism. It is a broad programme focused on sustainable tourism and the graduate's future role in the industry. The programme literally, takes students anywhere and has an international character. A degree in Tourism Management could provide career opportunities as:

- › Events manager
- › Marketing and communications manager
- › Product manager
- › Regional manager at a travel agency
- › Sales manager
- › Governmental policy officer

These are, of course, just a few examples. Some students become self-employed or work as advisors. The career opportunities with this all-round programme are numerous.

Why Tourism Management

Tourism is and always will be an important economic driver. All over the world, the tourism industry is growing and offering opportunities to graduates with an entrepreneurial spirit and an open mind.

By expanding your boundaries, you can reach even greater heights.

Our students, lecturers, and researchers collaborate in small teams on real-life assignments and share their innovative ideas in practice. Our courses incorporate the latest trends and developments in the relevant sectors and industries, at national and international levels. The future calls for enterprising and resourceful professionals who know how to translate their knowledge into innovative solutions and who have the vision and courage needed to look beyond their own professional field. In a rapidly changing world, that is where SUAS-Q excels; our people make the impossible possible.

Study Coach

At the start of the programme, you are assigned a coach who will personally guide you during the entire programme. This coach will help you to reflect on your personal development, way of learning, and future career. In case you encounter any challenge during your studies, your study coach is available in one-to-one meetings to advise and support you thus ensuring your success.

Foreign Languages

If you would like to study or work abroad, you must have a good command of several foreign languages. English is the language of instruction in the Tourism Management programme. You will learn Spanish as an additional foreign language during your studies at SUAS-Q.

Tourism Management

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

Are you ready for tomorrow's world?

We live in a time where knowledge is fundamental to our societies and economies, in a world that is rapidly changing, circulating capital and people. Knowledge is one of the main valuable resources important for economic and social growth.

At Stenden University of Applied Sciences - Qatar we want to prepare you for this ever changing world. That is why we bring tomorrow's reality into our university and show you how you can make a difference. We believe excelling in tomorrow's world requires three core interconnected competences: being able to find your way internationally and interculturally, being able to understand and impact the issues that matter most for tomorrow, and being able to cooperate and co-create effectively.

High employability of our graduates

The Tourism management programme at SUAS-Q develops the wide range of skills required in today's and tomorrow's dynamic and captivating tourism industry. Thanks to the industry focus of the TM programme, we pride on the high employability of our graduates soon after graduation as they are well regarded by potential employers.

Tourism Management

Tourism is and always will be an important economic driver. All over the world, the tourism industry is growing and offering opportunities for those with an entrepreneurial spirit and an open mind. The Tourism Management programme enables students to develop their professionalism in an interdisciplinary curriculum enabling them to become well-rounded tourism managers with a comprehensive set of proficiencies. The mission of the Tourism Management programme is to educate future tourism managers who are able to work in an international context and who contribute to the further professionalization of the tourism industry.
